A Message from Pastor Laura

Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to build him up. - Romans 15:2

The Triune God lives and exists in relationship: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. This divine community reaches out to humanity in Jesus Christ. Jesus chooses twelve disciples and expands his community. The twelve share that community with others, and we get the church. The church expands from Jerusalem to Ethiopia to Egypt to Rome to.....the Sunset Hills neighborhood. We are a part of God's always expanding relationship with God's world.

Not only are we a part of God's expanding relationship with God's world, but we participate in expanding that relationship by pursuing relationships with our neighbors. We pursue relationships with the people of Sunset Hills.

Note what I said there: we pursue relationships. We don't pursue potential converts, potential church goers, etc. We don't turn people into projects. We act like Jesus Christ, who comes to earth to love the earth, listen to its people, and love those people.

The ministry of listening and loving (pursuing relationships!) is the work of mission. It's what the session and I learned about at our Future Church Summit in February, learning how micro-church communities are flourishing in neighborhoods and can flourish in our own neighborhood. It's what I learned about in my Doctor of Ministry course in March, "Plunging Into the Neighborhood."

Pay attention for upcoming opportunities to plunge into our neighborhood, to build relationships with our neighbors! Your session and pastor are working hard to find ways to engage with the people in the place where God has planted us.

If you want to work ahead, take your dog for a walk and get to know some neighbors you haven't met. Learn who they are, what they love, and what they're excited about. Then let your church family know what you learned so we can all grow in relationship with this neighborhood together!

In Christ's Service,
Pastor Laura

Music Notes

By Shelby Gracey

We're so thankful that we can gather on Easter Sunday for in-person worship this year! While different, we certainly hope that the recorded music will help to lift your hearts in celebration of Christ's Resurrection! During this Easter season, I'd like to highlight the hymn, "In the Cross of Christ I Glory," written by John Bowring in 1825.

"When the World Trade Center collapsed following the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, workers excavating the site found a cross-shaped beam that, standing upright amid the ruin and debris, became a makeshift center of worship. The picture of that cross was published around the world and served as a symbol of hope.

A similar story is associated with this hymn. On the island of Macao in the region of Hong Kong, a magnificent cathedral was destroyed. Only the front wall remained. Atop it was a great metal cross, blackened with age, silhouetted against the sky. It is said that hymnist John Bowring was so inspired by the story of this cathedral that he wrote the hymn, In the cross of Christ I glory, tow'ring o'er the wrecks of time.

The validity of that story is questionable, but we do have a verified story about Rathbun, the tune to which this hymn is set. It was composed by Ithamar Conkey, organist at Central Baptist Church in Norwich, Connecticut.

In 1849, Central's pastor had planned a series of sermons on the seven last words of Christ on the Cross. According to the Norwich Bulletin: "One Sunday during the series it was a very rainy day. Mr. Conkey was sorely disappointed that the members of the choir did not appear, as only one soprano came. Mr. Conkey was so discouraged and disheartened that after the prelude he closed the organ and locked it and left for his home. The pastor and choir gallery were at opposite ends of the church, and he could leave without attracting the attention of the congregation. That afternoon, as he sat down at the piano for practice, his mind was distracted with the thoughts of the sermons his pastor had prepared, as well as the words of the hymn, In the Cross of Christ I Glory.

That very day he composed the music that is now so universally familiar in churches of every denomination, known as RATHBUN. He admitted afterward the inspiration was a vivid contradiction of his feelings at the morning service.

By why did he name his tune RATHBUN? The one choir member who showed up on that rainy Sunday in 1849 . . . that one faithful soprano was named Mrs. Beriah S. Rathbun."

In the cross of Christ I glory, tow'ring o'er the wrecks of time;

All the light of sacred story gathers round its head sublime.

*When the woes of life o'er take me,
hopes deceive and fears annoy;*

*Never shall the cross forsake me, Lo!
It glows with peace and joy.*

*When the sun of bliss is beaming,
light and love upon my way;*

From the cross the radiance streaming, adds more luster to the day.

Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure, by the cross are sanctified;

Peace is there that knows no measure, joys that thro' all time abide.

("Then Sings My Soul," Robert J. Morgan, Thomas Nelson, Inc., 2003, p. 97.)

Mission Update

Lent was highlighted by Mission Nights in lieu of Lenten Suppers. Each Wednesday via Zoom the congregation was invited to participate in presentations by a variety of Mission leaders followed by a Q & A session.

On February 24, Mark Adams, our Presbyterian missionary with Frontera de Cristo Border Ministry, gave us a geographic understanding of the ministry in Agua Prieta across the border from Douglas, Arizona

Mark and his staff partner with many different groups and individual volunteers to create a flexible and multifaceted organization. Covid 19 has been active in the area, but Adam and his family find the hospitals adequate to their needs. The drug cartel has also been active. The Mission created a Children's Initiative to counteract the cartels' lure. The Women's Co-operative encourages a neighbor to school connection with sewing and gardening opportunities. The financial key to their operations is Café Justo, a cooperative with individual coffee growers and roasters. This business thrives on American and Mexican markets, including SHUP.

<http://fronteradecristo.org/>

On March 3, Zoom allowed us to meet Myra Mann who heads the Pittsburgh region for Bread for the World, a long-time lobbying organization which endeavors to feed the world's hungry. It is a totally volunteer organization using letter writing, emails, phone calls and office visits with government representatives and officials to lobby for funds to defeat hunger.

Recently, after 2 years of lobbying and 100,000 letters, Congress passed Bill #189 with significant funding. Some of the groups that receive this aid are WICO (Women, Infants and Children Org.), SNAP (Food Stamps), and EITC (Earned Income Tax Credit). Bread for the World appears under The Department of Agriculture. Bread for the World makes certain the hungry are not forgotten.

On March 10, we met with AJ Bisesi from Garfield Farm. Over the last decade Garfield Farm has turned three acres of abandoned land into one of the most successful urban farms in Pittsburgh. Their goal to bring fresh produce to the community is aided by volunteers from both inside and outside the neighborhood.

Every month they donate fresh produce to the Valley View Church food pantry. They also have a vegetable subscription program. This program allows members in the community to receive produce by either working the farm, paying market price or using a variety of food assistance programs.

Garfield Farm plans to go mobile this year with the hopes of being able to bring their produce to more members of the community.

On April 17th, Rev. Charissa Howe, a world traveler with a particular interest in Christianity joined us to talk about her recent travels to the Celtic lands of Scotland and Ireland. She discovered a spirituality particular to the Celts that was possibly shaped by their geography. It is a harsh climate leading to an historically harsh existence. Hence, the tendency toward melancholy, singular contemplation.

Charissa's presentation was in the form of an evening vesper. She began with St. Patrick's Prayer including Celtic music to set the tone.

The modern church in Ireland and Scotland is experiencing the same losses that we are. The Methodists and Presbyterians there are finding ways to collaborate and like us, are studying "Fresh Expressions" to find new approaches for the modern era.

On March 24, Pastor Laura gave us a presentation on Christmas International House. This organization places international college students with American host families during their winter breaks. The program enables these students to explore new cities, learn what American families are like, and to develop friendships.

Pastor Laura shared her experience of serving with CIH and its ministry of giving "room at the inn" during the season of Jesus' birth.

Mission Opportunities

Garfield Farm - Saturday, April 10th - 10:00 am to Noon

As we learned at our Mission Wednesday meeting on March 10th, Garfield Farm is a three-acre farm located in the city of Pittsburgh. Urban farming, although not as common as farming in rural areas, is growing in popularity. Urban farms help to provide easier access to fresh produce to families living in cities at an affordable price. Garfield Farm goes one step further and provides fresh produce to members of their community at a greatly reduced price than can be found in grocery stores. Sometimes, members receive the produce for free.

To continue to thrive, Garfield Farm relies on donations. Yes, they accept monetary donations, but they also accept donations in the form of people who are willing to help them work the farm.

SHUP members have been visiting the farm on mission trips for the past few years. Before the pandemic, our Youth Group has spent time there, and our young adults make annual visits.

This year, we are asking all members of SHUP to join us for a morning of hard work and fun for this important mission.

On Saturday, April 10th we will be going to Garfield Farm. We will meet in the church parking lot at 9:15 am to carpool (we ask that you drive with your family or those you have been “podding” with over the pandemic). Remember to wear your mask, closed toed shoes and to bring your gardening gloves! We will be working from 10:00 am - Noon. We hope you will consider joining us for this rewarding opportunity!

To learn more about Garfield Farm, please visit their website at www.garfieldfarm.com.

Flowers for Food Drive - Sunday, April 18th - 11:30 am to 1:30 pm - at SHUP

Join us on Sunday, April 18th from 11:30 am to 1:30 pm to participate in a new kind of food drive. We will walk around the Sunset Hills neighborhood in teams of three to collect canned and non-perishable goods for SHIM. In return for food, we will give our neighbors a packet of flower seeds.

Each team will have a wagon and a basket full of seeds packets. A chase car will drive around the neighborhood to pick up goods from the full wagons.

The neighborhood will be notified ahead of time of this event so they may prepare accordingly. This will be a great opportunity for us to meet and chat with our neighbors. Everyone is invited to join in the fun!

Schedule

11:30 am - Noon	Brown Bag Lunch and Training in Findley Hall
Noon - 1:00 pm	Food Collection
1:00 pm - 1:30 pm	De-Brief in Findley Hall

Supplies Needed

- Wear Comfy walking Shoes

We need some extra wagons. If you are able to bring a wagon, please let Pastor Laura know.

What's the Catch?

This project is an assignment for Pastor Laura's Doctor of Ministry course "Plunging Into the Neighborhood." She will be writing a nine-page paper about this project. So, let's all support her and get out there for the sake of SHIM and our neighbors!

An RSVP is not necessary but is extraordinarily helpful. You can RSVP to Pastor Laura at revlaurastrauss@gmail.com or by calling the church office at (412)561-6261.

WHEN WE ALL DO A LITTLE,
IT ADDS UP TO A LOT!
April 5 – May 23, 2021

With a foundation in faith built in the early years, our youth can teach us something about leading movements for change in their own communities and in the world. Gifts to the Pentecost Offering are helping to provide opportunities for young people to grow and share in their faith in Christ. The gifts we share will help young people learn important lessons about life and faith. And children, youth, and young adults can teach us new things and help us shape our faith, too.

We will be collecting for the Pentecost Special offering beginning April 5th. You can mail your donation to the church office, drop it in the collection baskets on Sunday or by using the tithely app. Just be sure to write “Pentecost Offering” on the memo line. Donations will be accepted through May 23rd.

Please give generously...for if we all do a little, it adds up to a lot.

When you give to the Pentecost Offering, you are helping to provide opportunities for young people to grow and share in their faith in Christ.

Together, we are building the household of God with children, youth and young adults.

Traveling with Pomegranates

By Sue Monk Kidd & Anne Kidd Taylor

Sue Monk Kidd has touched the hearts of millions of readers with her beloved novels and acclaimed nonfiction. Now, in this wise and engrossing dual memoir, she and her daughter, Ann, chronicle their travels together through Greece and France at a time when each was on a quest to redefine herself and rediscover each other.

As Sue struggles to enlarge a vision of swarming bees into a novel, and Ann ponders the classic question of what to do with her life, this modern-day Demeter and Persephone explore an array of inspiring figures and sacred sites. They also give voice to that most protean of human connections: the bond of mothers and daughters.

An absorbing book about spiritual growth and finding one's destiny, Traveling with Pomegranates is both a revealing self-portrait by a beloved author and her daughter, and a momentous story that will resonate with women everywhere. (Amazon Book Description)

The Book Club will meet using Zoom. If you would like to join the discussion, contact Pastor Laura to have the link sent to you:
